Thank you to the team at Brush Squad Painting.

I've been on a mission these past few months trying to remodel and fix my grandmas house. Her house was falling apart, was painted in an ugly old school blue with dirt everywhere. I called numerous painters and all were charging ridiculous prices. Luckily, I came across Brush Squad Painting. Not only were their prices much more affordable but they did an excellent job and finished when they said they would. Deadlines are crucial! I'm happy they were able to meet and far exceed my expectations. I highly recommend them to anyone looking to paint their home.

This review is quite a bit overdue but I thought I would give some credit where it is due. My mom used brush squad to re-paint a few of our bedrooms earlier this year, these guys did a great job on a task we didn't want to do ourself. They got everything done quickly & for a good price. Most importantly they didn't leave behind a mess. If you're in miami and need something painted give them a call.
